Dear Harold:

How did you get my name as Tom? It's Bob. Do I sign my name tha t badly?!!

Thanks for the good letter. You attribute your short biographical sketches to humility...well, whenever I'm asked, I act humble, but I really have nothing to tell@@@!!!

I will not mention A CITIZEN'S DECENT, but I will mention POST MORTEM. & will follow pattern on back of WWI.

I will also not say anything at all of you N.O. work--only that you are indeed working there in conjunction with Garrison. (I will not show you in your t-shirt!)

Will drop Dione Turner a note. No problem. Happy to do it.

My best to you both and to your work,

Bob Bonazzi

PS: I dont expect an answer to this. We're straight. Everytime I tell busy people not to bother writing back, they alwasy do! But I mean it: no need. You've got work to do. For that matter, so do ~~it~~/ I.
